NO HOME RULE BILL THIS SESSION OF PARLIAMENT

LONDON, Feb. 23 — Premier Asquith said today that the government did not intend to introduce a home rule bill this session of parliament. This statement adds to the general political confusion.

WHISPERED THAT SECRETARY BALLINGER WILL RESIGN.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—It is whispered among his friends that Secretary of the Interior Ballinger intends resigning and entering law practice when the congressional committee which is investigating his official conduct makes its report.

INTERESTING TRACTION CASE IN WISCONSIN COURT.

OSHKOSH, Wis., Feb. 23 — The suit brought by the city of Manitowoc to restrain the Manitowoc and Northern Traction Company from advancing its interurban rates came up for argument here today. The city declared that the proposed advance in rates would be a violation in the company's franchise which prescribes a 10-cent fare. The city also seeks to prevent the company from engaging in freight and express traffic. The case is believed to be the first of its kind to come before a Wisconsin court.

HARRY K. THAW IS NOT PLEASED WITH MATTEAWAN

FISHKILL LANDING, N. Y., Feb. 23—Whether Harry K. Thaw shall continue an inmate of the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane or be removed to some other State institution will be determined at a hearing begun today. In making his application for removal to some other institution Thaw declared that his privileges were curtailed at Matteawan, that he was not permitted to have what he wanted to eat and that he was constantly obliged to associate with dangerous lunatics.

Something Left.

Brown (at the club)—Yes, by Jove, there's very little you can teach me. I've been everywhere, done everything, seen everything. The Scotch Member—Young man, did ye ever have D. T.'s? Brown—D. T.'s? Great Scott, no! The Scotch Member—Then ye've seen nowt—Sketch.

The Stuart Penny.

A pamphlet published in 1677, entitled "The Worth of a Penny; or, A Caution to Keep Money. With the Causes of the Scarcity and Misery of the Want Thereof In These Hard and Merciless Times," contains a list of articles obtainable for a penny in the days of Charles II. These include "a dish of coffee to quicken your stomach and refresh your spirits," "a fair cucumber" and "portions of such commodities as nuts, vinegar, grapes, cake, onions and oatmeal." The catalogue of pennyworths obtainable at an apothecary's is a lengthy one and includes "lettuce to make you sleep, mithridate to make you sweat and aniseed, which may save your life in a fainting or swoond."

This in the way of recreation "for a penny you may see any monster, jack-anapes or those roaring boys, the Lyons; you may hear a most eloquent oration upon our English kings and queens if you listen to him who keeps monuments at Westminster; you may have all the news in England and other countries of murders, floods, witches, fires, tempests and what not in the weekly newspapers."—London Scraps.

Sarcastic.

"I can recommend this horse, sir," said a dealer, "as a strong, sound animal."

"It must be," agreed the customer, "to have attained its present age!"

A Cinch.

Dubbins—Do you know where I can find a lot facing south? Strubbins—Why not try around the north pole? That's a very likely place.—Judge.

A Queer Ornament.

Some years ago we found in a secret drawer of a pearl embroidered work-box three locks of hair fastened to small enamel heart shaped mounts, with silver eyelets. Two were inscribed "R. C. obt. 16th April, 1664." "R. C. 1664." The third had no inscription at all. In this box I now keep an engraving of a portrait of Elizabeth, queen of Bohemia, which plainly shows the curl of hair in her left ear, attached to a pearl earring. The painting, by Gerard Honthorst, was engraved by G. Vertue.

When I showed these hair earrings to a gentleman of some considerable learning he informed me that an uncle of Anne, wife of King James I., was afflicted by a malady, still prevalent in Poland and some parts of Russia, which consists of a growth of hair and flesh pendent from the ear, on which it is dangerous to operate owing to the profuse hemorrhage which ensues. He added that in consequence of this royal infirmity a fashion arose in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries of wearing locks of hair pendent from the left ears. I believe there is a portrait of a Stuart lady still at Ham House so adorned.—London Notes and Queries.
